Risk Profile

Moderate-High Risk

This portfolio holds more equity exposure than a medium risk portfolio but less than a high-risk portfolio. In turn the expected volatility is higher than a medium risk portfolio, but less than a high-risk portfolio. The probability of losses is higher than that of a medium risk portfolio, but less than a high-risk portfolio and the expected potential long term investment returns could therefore be higher than a medium risk portfolio. Where the asset allocation contained in this MDD reflects offshore exposure, the portfolio is exposed to currency risks. The portfolio is exposed to equity as well as default and interest rate risks. Therefore, it is suitable for medium to long term investment horizons.

Annualised return is the weighted average compound growth rate over the period measured.

Fund Objective

The Saffron BCI Flexible Fund is a flexible portfolio that aims to deliver a high long-term total return by investing across asset classes.

Fund Manager Quarterly Comment - As at 30 June 2024

The Saffron BCI Flexible Fund had a strong quarter, returning 7.34% vs the benchmark returning 4.15%, benefiting from heavier equity exposure than peers amidst the euphoric GNU trade. The All-Share printed a strong quarter, gaining 8.19% in total return.

The key narrative over the last quarter globally were around election outcomes as large populations went to the polls around the world. Markets globally had some apprehension to polling in Europe as polls indicated a shift further right, while volatility in EM markets such as India and South Africa persisted amidst unclear outcomes in pre-election polling. The GNU in South Africa spurred on a fixed-income and financial equities rally, as markets embraced the ANC-DA collaborative government, which was seen as a breath of fresh air amidst rising popularity of further left factions like the EFF and MK parties.

Global markets were strong during the quarter, with the All-Share and Hang Seng standing out, returning 8.19% and 7.12% respectively. The American markets remained strong as the S&P and Nasdaq continued to notch record highs on the back of continued tech strength, while economic releases remain strong.

Commodities had a strong quarter. Platinum bounced off lows to rally 9.32%, while Copper speculators continued to push the price up (7.86%). Gold continued its historic run, gaining a further 5.4% over the quarter. Iron ore was volatile in the period as Chinese rhetoric regarding demand spurred market worries. Notwithstanding this, the metal ended up 6.74% for the quarter. The oil price dropped slightly (2.3%) as some of the geopolitical tension subsided.

Asset classes on the JSE were all positive over the period, with the FINI15 being the best performer of the major indexes (returning 14.35% for the period) while the INDI25 returned 4.13% and the RESI gained 3.16%. The FINI performance can be attributed the correlation with SA Inc, with banks and insurance moving in tandem with government bonds as the GNU outcome became clearer. RESI was supported by gold miners, specifically those domiciled in SA, as the gold price coupled with ZAR costs were leveraged into outperformance. Gold Fields struggled on the back of idiosyncratic issues at their Salares Norte mine. ARM bounced off the lows experienced in the last quarter and rallied along with the Iron Ore Price.

The biggest individual name moves were seen in the SA Inc trades, with all banks (other than Absa) and most retailers rallying between 10 and 30%. Notable weakness was seen in MTN, the PGM miners and Goldfields, while Sasol also continued to struggle.

During the quarter, we saw the Rand reverse its depreciation trend on the back of the election outcome, gaining 3.64% against the dollar, 4.28% against the Euro and 3.43% against the GBP. Fixed income indices were also notable outperformers, as the ALBI returned 7.49% on the quarter. STEFI also had a strong quarter returning 2.09%.

The fund outperformed the benchmark over the quarter, with a beneficial overweight holding of government bonds and South African instruments while the peer group retains a higher offshore exposure.
